To remain a 4-H Club in good standing, 4-H volunteers will agree and conform to the following volunteer responsibilities:

- Participate in appropriate 4-H volunteer training.
- Conduct 4-H volunteer activities in compliance with University of Connecticut and Cooperative Extension System policies and guidelines.
- Keep 4-H Extension staff members, for whom you volunteer, informed of group and project activities including field trips, fund raising events, websites, and other special activities.
- Submit annually to the appropriate 4-H Extension staff member, up-to-date enrollment information for the 4-H members and other program participants that you direct. All 4-H members must have a current 4-H Enrollment Form on file in the appropriate County Extension Center. A 4-H Enrollment Form must be completed each year that a member is enrolled.
- Welcome all youths, families, adults, and other volunteers to participate in the program regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, or disability.
