Introduction to Financial Planning for Small Farms and Agribusinesses

"I've been working on my business plan, but I'm really stuck with the financials." In a 3 hour workshop, get introduced to the key elements of financial planning for small agricultural or agriculturally-related business. Whether you're just dreaming, starting out, or expanding, you'll find what's key for price setting, projecting costs and income, risk management, securing a business loan or grant, taxes, etc. Get information on resources that help with projections and recordkeeping. There is no charge although you need to pre-register. Joe Bonelli, Agricultural Economist, UConn Cooperative Extension, will be the instructor. All programs are open to everyone and are nondiscriminatory. Use the attached form to pre-register – just choose a convenient date or location.
