The University of Connecticut Department of Nutritional Sciences and The Center for Eliminating Health Disparities among Latinos (CEHDL) is searching for a full time (50 percent Department, 50 percent CEHDL) Graphic Designer Illustrator I (UCP III). This is an end-date position, renewable annually based on availability of funding.

JOB SUMMARY

Under the general supervision of designated supervisor, designs and executes a variety of promotional, educational, technical and informational materials, requiring originality and creativity in the development and maintenance of the Connecticut Center of Excellence for Eliminating Health Disparities among Latinos and Department of Nutritional Sciences web site and publications.

CHARACTERISTIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

For both the Department of Nutritional Sciences and Center for Eliminating Health Disparities:

1. Under the supervision of, and with content provided by, Center Director or Department Head, designer will assist in the development and maintenance of a continually evolving web presence.
2. Designs, sketches, arranges and determines elements of graphics for flyers, posters, brochures, letterheads, reports, logos and other publications as required.
3. Design and layout of graphics and text in various formats for publishing either on the web or in print.
4. Designs charts and graphs for inclusion on posters and displays for academic conferences.
5. Consults with clients concerning design needs, audience goals, desired results and as needed, publisher requirements.
6. Layout and distribution of the Department of Nutritional Sciences newsletters.
7. May do photography and illustrations of an educational/academic nature.
8. Performs related duties as required.

MINIMUM ACCEPTABLE QUALIFICATIONS

1. Bachelor's degree in graphic design or related field or equivalent combination of training and experience.
2. Evidence of creative ability as demonstrated by portfolio.
3. Knowledge of applications including, but not limited to: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, Quark Express and InDesign; Macromedia Dreamweaver, Flash, and Fireworks; Microsoft Word, Excel and Powerpoint. Knowledge of HTML, Java Script and CSS a plus.
4. Ability to work with varied clientele from students to faculty.
5. Ability to meet deadlines.

PREFERRED

Knowledge of University of Connecticut policies and procedures.

Please send resumes to Lisa Phillips, University of Connecticut, CEHDL, 3624 Horsebarn Rd. Extension, NUSC, U-4017, Storrs, CT 06269; email: lisa.phillips@uconn.edu